Pam is an accomplished Bible teacher and conference speaker who brings a word of hope to women in a powerful way. Pam is a published author of numerous books like Pearls of Hope, Virtuous, Let There Be Light and A Woman God Uses to name a few.

Pam's distinguished grace and style along with her Spirit-led command of God's Word will draw your ladies in and their lives changed forever.

Debbie Chambers Director Jabbok Ministries

Debbie is the Ministry Director for Jabbok Ministries. She is a retired Lieutenant from Law Enforcement. For 18 years, Debbie was an investigator handling crimes against women and children. She brings a unique perspective, humor, and transparency that is laced with powerful truths guaranteed to inspire women of all ages and walks of life. Her message is rare and timely for this generation.

Debbie has her Bachelor's Degree in Human Relations with a minor in Biblical Studies. She also holds a masters in Family Counseling, National and State Certifications as well as her LPC. Debbie is the Lead Counselor at Jabbok Ministries and is being used mightily of God in the lives of women, teens and children. She is a gifted counselor, group instructor, mentor, court advocate, teacher and ambassador for Jabbok Ministries. Debbie does counseling in the Milner office and in Forsyth.

Cindy Stanford Worship Leader

Cindy Stanford has been singing for the Lord since she was 5 years old, thanks to the godly heritage she received from her parents. Through every circumstance and stage of life she has learned how important it is to find strength in God's presence. After experiencing the saving, life changing power of worship in her own life through the devastation of a painful divorce and the aftermath of being a single mother of 3, it has become her passion to see people experience the presence of God in a very real way and to start living daily with purpose by the power of God. Cindy prefers the title of 'Lead Worshiper' rather than worship leader as she is not a performer; she simply seeks to invite people to join her in her worship of an Almighty, loving God. Cindy is celebrating over 10 years of marriage to her husband, Dr. Keith Stanford, and is blessed with a big, blended family full of children who love Jesus.

Ivy Scoggin Master of Ceremonies

Ivy Scoggin is a Speech-Language Pathologist, mother of two (Brady & Max) and wife of Casting Crowns' drummer Brian Scoggin. They have served at Rock Springs Church since 2004. Upon becoming a Christian at the age of sixteen, Ivy developed a desire to serve those in need and used a college softball scholarship to pursue a degree in Speech-Language Pathology. She completed her MEd, CCC-SLP degree in 2003 and married Brian months after. 10 years and two kids later, they are still serving at Rock Springs Church in Milner, GA and around the world with Casting Crowns. Brian often describes Ivy as a real life "Super Woman" because of the way she carries the many responsibilities of professional and family life while he is away touring. "She's the glue that holds it all together," he says. "She's a strong woman who's full of faith and class."
